A Wounded Spirit, Transformed

A wounded spirit, God wants to mend
To bring healing and wholeness once again
Where there's brokenness, God gives new hope
And waters our souls to bring new growth
When we have no one, He calls us His friend
And forgives our sins, so we're not condemned
His love goes deep and covers our sin,
So His light may shine brightly within
Dispelling darkness and deep despair,
His love is constant and always near
The cleansing streams of God's sweet grace
Washes over us as we embrace
His holy word that came to life
In the person of His Son, Jesus Christ,
Who brings to us life, hope and love
And eternal blessings from His throne above
I could never want anything more
Than forgiveness and healing from my Lord
For we shall not stay wounded or dismayed,
But be transformed by the word He gave
And with His spirit sent to comfort us,
We shall emerge with faith, hope and love.

Ash Wednesday

Dear Lord, as we enter this solemn and Holy season, we pray that You would send your Holy Spirit upon us that we might prepare ourselves for these coming 40 days of Lent. Even though we may no longer wear sackcloth and ashes, we do seek to humble ourselves so that we can understand the magnificence of Your love for us as You humbled Yourself and gave Your life on the Cross that we might receive the gift of Eternal Glory With You. Amen
